FINE FOR TAKING SEA WATER.

Boulogne Customs Officers Threaten to Enforce Old Law of Louis XIV

Boulogne, July 28.—A woman who took two buckets of water from the sea to bathe a child, in accordance with a doctor's orders, was astonished to receive an official warning from the customs officers threatening to fine her for a breach of the law. It has been discovered that there is an unrepealed law of Louis XIV forbidding the taking of sea water, lest those taking it extract the salt and thus defraud the revenue of the salt tax. The woman was obliged to submit but she has written a declaration of the purpose for which the water was obtained in order to secure an official permit to use the sea water.
